HEAT

Higher Education for ASEAN Talents
(HEAT)

Scholarship Opportunity for ASEAN Faculty Members in the Republic of Korea

Guidelines

Description

Korean Council for University Education (KCUE) is launching a full scholarship opportunity for ASEAN faculty members: Higher Education for ASEAN Talents (HEAT).

Higher Education for ASEAN Talents (HEAT) is designed to provide higher education in Korea for ASEAN faculty members. The main purpose of this program is to invite faculty members from ASEAN higher education institutions to support their acquisition of a doctoral degree in Korea with the aim to enhance their expertise and promote people-to-people exchanges between Korea and ASEAN.

Each year 30 scholarship recipients from 10 ASEAN Members States will be selected (3 persons per country), and each person will receive a full scholarship for three years. KCUE will cover tuition, living expenses, and other costs. Participants will receive a Doctoral degree from a Korean university after completion of the program. HEAT is funded from ASEAN-Korea Cooperation Fund(AKCF), and Korean Council for University Education (KCUE) is the implementing agency of the HEAT project.
